

International Bowling Museum & Hall of Fame

Presents the
Daroll & Dolores Frewing
College scholarship fund

$25,000 Scholarship Application

This scholarship is awarded annually to one BPAA family member

Daroll Frewing Co-Founder and CEO of US Bowling Corporation along with his wife Dolores have played an integral role in the bowling manufacturing and installation business since 1959. The Frewing's have built amazing relationships with many proprietors in the bowling industry and now with that success want to give back by supporting the children of the bowling proprietors to further their education. Daroll and Dolores are hoping this will allow selected students to move ahead with their college education and achieve the same success that Daroll and Dolores have been so blessed with.

It has been Daroll and Dolores wish for many years to put together this annual scholarship award and would consider this to be one of their greatest moments in their bowling business career.

Daroll and Dolores want to thank all the bowling proprietors of this great industry for their continued support and could not be more proud to give back to their families by providing this annual scholarship award.

Daroll and Dolores Frewing Scholarship Application

The Daroll & Dolores Frewing Scholarship is awarded to a BPAA family members son, daughter or grandchild who achieves academic success and gives back to his/her community through service.
